The Virginia Chronicle was the only paper in Western Nevada which treated the State Fair with silent contempt. It never referred to it once, not even acknowledging the receipt of the complimentary tickets sent to its editors.
Renoites ought to patronize such a paper!

A party, among them five babies, left here yesterday for an overland trip to Oregon. The party hailed from Humboldt Co., and propose to camp along the road. The Dallas is their destination.

Frank Perkins has assumed control of Cooke's corner. Frank is deservedly popular, and under his management the corner ought to and probably will do a land-office business.

Who killed Mike Groody? is a question that may never be solved. That he was foully dealt with seems certain. The adage "murder will out" may get a slap in the face this time.

A horse and buggy were stolen from W. H. Toles of Six Mile Canyon some time since. Hearing that they were at Summit Deputy Sheriff Dale Gray started in pursuit yesterday.

Sandy Crocker is still very low. The doctors have faint hope of his recovery, but if attentive nursing and good care will save him he will be brought through.

The Reno Savings Bank cautions the public against the purchase of a certain certificate of deposit. Payment has been stopped.

An assessment has just been levied by the Southern Nevada M. Co. See notice.

Pyramid District.

The Virginia City Footlight says: Quite a ripple of excitement has been enthusiased into the speculative minds of some of our best citizens over the discovery of very rich rock in Pyramid District. The location of the District is about twenty-eight miles North from Reno, in Washoe County. Ore of fine quality has been found and assays running as high as four hundred dollars to the ton, have been obtained. Among the most prominent claims already located, is the Jones & Kinkaid, on whose ground a large hoisting works and mill, is in course of erection, the Crown Prince, Summit, Whirlwind, Infant and Virginia Companies. The ledge of silver and gold bearing rock has been found to be very extensive and of exceeding richness. Some idea of the high quality of rock can be obtained by visiting the Wm. Tell Saloon, No. 45 South C street, where a quantity of the ore is on exhibition. From Mr. Force Gregory, a large owner and locator in the District, we learn that prospecting is being vigorously pushed forward and a showing that will astonish the Comstockers will be made.

District Court.

Yesterday's proceedings before Judge King:
Trial Jurors excused until Monday Oct. 20, at 10 A. M.
A. M. Hagens vs. United Brooklyn M. Co., continued for the term at cost of plaintiff, who failed to put in an appearance.
Adjourned until this morning at 10 o'clock.

Witnesses.

Col. U. E. Allen, Speaker pro tem, and Chas. Stoddard, Sergeant-at-Arms, of the last Assembly, were yesterday subpoenaed by Sheriff Walker as witnesses for the defense in the Comins-Hoyt libel suit, which comes off at Hamilton on the 17th of next month.

After the Board.

Stocks have been going down for the past two days. After the afternoon Board yesterday Union was 78, Sierra Nevada 67, Mexican 58, G. & C. 10 1/4, Alta 6, Benton 3 1/4, Jacket 15 1/4, Savage 13, Chollar 7 1/4.

Convicted.

The two car-breakers had their second trial yesterday, and this time the jury agreed. Judge Young will pass sentence at 8 o'clock this morning.

The time is drawing near when the Winter's wood must be got in; also taxes are soon due and payable.

County Clerk Parish is considerably better. Bilious fever is what ails him.

Some fine oil paintings were sold very cheap at the Dollar Store last evening.

The machinery of the Emma mine is being removed to the Jones & Kinkaid.

The time is close at hand for the new time-table of the C. P. R. R.

Eight inches of snow fell at Camp Bidwell on Monday.

A number of Renoites are going to the Carson races to-day.

The grading is almost done for the Con. Esmeralda mill.

The District Court will be in session to-day.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Governor Hendricks is an Ohio man.
General Butler will take the stump in his own behalf.

The Philadelphia Times calls it the itinerant Cabinet.

Western politicians are beginning to talk of Grant and Blaine as the ticket in 1880.

Colonel T. W. Higginson thinks the Republican party should send its best speakers into the South.

Mr. Galusha A. Grow does not think the Greenback vote in Pennsylvania this year will exceed 20,000.

Mr. George C. Gorham, of California, has been taken back into the party by the Washington Republican.

The Union Herald thinks that a year from now Tammany Hall will be in full favor with the Democratic party.

Doorkeeper Fitzhugh, who described himself as a "bigger man" than Grant, is now doorkeeper to the Texas Legislature.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat: "Every sane man knows that Grant, if he lives, will be the Republican candidate for President, and there is no sense in affecting ignorance on the subject. On with the boom."

According to a Washington despatch to the Cincinnati Commercial, Southern Democrats laugh at the story that they fear the loss of Louisiana, Mississippi and Florida at the next Presidential election.

GRANT'S CRITICISM OF EWING.—A Portland dispatch says: General Grant, on being informed of the sweeping Republican triumph in Ohio, expressed much gratification thereat. He said, with much emphasis that Ewing as a representative of a false and dangerous financial doctrine deserved defeat. For many years the country had been struggling to reach a sound financial basis and it was inexcusable in any man to take a position which would again de-base the currency and impair the public credit.

THE CARSON RACES.

The meeting of the N. A. M. & M.
Society commenced Wednesday under auspicious circumstances. The weather was beautiful and the attendance excellent for a first day.

THE FIRST RACE

Was a running dash of a mile for a purse of $150, free for Nevada horses; also the counties of Sierra, Lassen, Plumas and Modoc, California, and Grant county, Oregon. Madge Duke, Illusion and Dice Box were the starters. The race and first money was conceded to Madge Duke, but there was lively gambling in the pool box for the second place, the horses Illusion and Dice Box selling at about even terms. Madge Duke won the heat and the race; Illusion second, and Dice Box third. Time, 1:16 1/4.

THE SECOND RACE

Was a mile and repeat for runners; purse $200. Glenita, Maggie S. and Twilight were entered. The two former started. Glenita was a hot favorite, and won both heats handily. Time, 1:47 1/4, 1:48 1/4.

THE LAST RACE

Was for the 2:50 class of trotters.
Belle Spencer, Surprise, McClellan and Stonewall Jackson were the starters, and sold in the pools in the order named.
The race was characterized by the number of breaks. The drivers were changed twice on Belle Spencer, there being suspicions that she was not driven to win. Surprise took the two first heats and came in ahead on the third, but the Judges declared it no heat and started them for a fourth time. Surprise won the final heat, and was awarded the race and first money; Spencer second, McClellan third and Jackson last.
The races gave the greatest satisfaction.
Time—2:50 1/4, 2:42 1/4, 2:40 1/4.

STATE RIGHT HERESY.

Senator Conkling opened the New York campaign last week. In his first speech he referred to the doctrine of State Rights in the annexed forcible manner:

State rights brought on the war with Mexico, to get more territory to plant with slavery; State rights flung down the Missouri compromise to spread slavery and wrong from the court the Dred Scott decision; State rights sent the army into Kansas, and by war, murder and outrage attempted to force slavery upon her and upon other coming States; State rights hunted slaves in peaceful communities with artillery and diagoons; State rights dispersed legislatures with the army of the nation; State rights plundered the Treasury and prostrated the credit of the country; State rights scattered our ships in distant seas, stripped Northern arsenals of arms and sent them to the South and put our armies under traitors who surrendered them—and all this was to be so arranged that the government might be easily murdered in its bed. State rights waged the rebellion with its mighty, murderous sacrifice of life and treasure; State rights murdered Lincoln and tried to murder his chief officers of State.
State rights now main and murder national officials in the discharge of their duty. State rights since the war have perpetrated nameless, numberless horrors, making free government by majorities impossible in several States, and subjecting to worse than slavery a race which the nation and all its citizens are bound before God and man to protect. State rights just of late have grasped at still higher usurpations.

The Caspian Sea marine telegraph cable was successfully laid on the 14th.

In Districts Formerly Ravaged.
By fever and ague, immunity from the dreaded scourge is enjoyed by those who have rendered their systems malaria proof with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the best preventive and remedy.
Quinine cannot compare with it in efficacy, and is anything but safe. Physicians commend the Bitters for its remedial and reconstituting properties and the closest analysis reveal nothing in the composition of a deleterious nature.
It does not deteriorate, is an agreeable cordial as well as a potent medicine, and when mixed with brackish or unwholesome water neutralizes its hurtful properties. The denizens of malarious localities, not only in the United States, but the tropics, regard it as an invaluable protection, and in hosts of families it is kept constantly on hand. As the tide of emigration spreads farther westward, the demand for it among these compelled to encounter the vicissitudes of climate constantly increase.
